NEW AT UUFP

The new phone, answering machine, internet service, and color printer is now operational. At the moment we do not have fax capabilities, TV, or 2nd phone on the first floor but hopefully, these added capabilities can come in the not too distant future. Thank You Jim Lyons.

Our new phone is 570-730-4122.

UUFP No-Pet policy

UUFP has a strict no-pet policy. We ask that you leave your animals at home or keep them outside the building. If you do bring along a pet for activities later, remember that UUFP abuts a public park with a stream. That's a nice place to exercise an animal, but be sure to observe Pennsylvania's leash law!

Building Dedication, 1 pm. Join us for the Dedication of our new Home! Andrea Lerner, District Executive, will be helping us dedicate the building. Please mark your calendar to be a part of this joyous event!

On Sunday, May 10, Mother's Day, UUFP will hold a plant sale / exchange. If you have any plants to donate, please contact: marionrosenbaum@hotmail.com.

PLEASE NOTE:

The suggestion box in the foyer has been removed. Here's why. We have agreed on the value of direct communication. Anonymous suggestions are not very useful, since no one knows who made them and what they really meant. Direct communication is so important to working through ideas and concerns that we ask members and friends to speak to Rev. Kim, Board President Paula, or any other member of the board. If you're shy, you could take someone with you, or leave one of them a note with your name, and they will follow up with you.

WOMEN'S GROUP

On Sunday, April 26th, the Women's Group of UUFP celebrated their first Crone Ceremony outside near the water, at our home on Knight Street in Stroudsburg. A Crone is a woman who has reached her wisdom years, maiden, mother, crone. It celebrates a woman's passage into the years of wisdom and honors an important stage of her life.

It was indeed a very beautiful day including music, singing, sunshine, sage, sparkles and a crowning of our newest Crone, Kathy Bressler. About a dozen women attended and read different parts of the ceremony. After the ceremony we went indoors to a very sumptuous homemade lunch. If you missed this event, the women's group will be planning for another Crone Ceremony in early fall. All women are welcome to attend. If you are interest in coming to the UUFP women's group, we meet on the second and fourth Saturdays of the month. Please feel free to contact Susan Odessky at susanhodessky@ hotmail.com or Elayne Eskenazi at eewolf@ptd.net

President's Message

"It will be a great day when our schools have all the money they need, and our air force has to have a bake sale to buy a bomber."

We could adapt Robert Fulghum's philosophy for use here at UUFP. In fact, Rev. Kim Wilson has mentioned more than once how wonderful it would be for us, someday, to hold fundraisers not for ourselves, but to benefit others.

We are still working on that evolution. This year our fellowship has reached deep to buy and convert our new home, and right now we are in the midst of our annual campaign, which will determine what we can accomplish in the coming year.

But Robert Fulghum and Rev. Kim will be delighted to know that thanks to the dedication and community spirit of our members, this fellowship already has made a good start at helping others. Kay Lopez and Gloria Finch have established a strong presence in Monroe County through their tireless work to raise public awareness of race relations and mass incarceration. UUFP board Treasurer Jim Furiosi and RE teacher Cynthia Miller recently held a lively Earth Day, opening Chalice Acres to adults and children to celebrate nature through a variety of activities. And in late March, UUFP fielded two teams at the Big Brothers Big Sisters of Monroe County's Bowl for Kids' Sake at Sky Lanes in East Stroudsburg. The annual bowl-athon supports the local chapter of this nationally recognized mentoring program for children of single parents. Bob Wahl, Ken Lesure, Jim Lyons, Susan Odessky and Billy Miller constituted the adult team and Cynthia Miller shepherded the kids' team, which included Annie Miller, Isolde Thomas, Evie and Lizzie Higgins and Kayla Estorque. Together, the UUFP teams were among the highest money-raising groups at the event. We should take special pride in our RE children, "kids helping kids."

These are all activities that welcome even more participants. UUFP doesn't have all the money it needs, so we'll have to keep holding fund drives. But the more we get out into the community, the more people will know about UUFP and what it stands for. The more often we offer our assistance, the more we act on principles, and the more likely we are to attract new, supporting members to our group. And all the while we are spreading the spirit of Unitarian Universalism.

That's worth supporting.

Minister's Column

It's not what we do once in a while that shapes our lives. It's what we do consistently. --Tony Robbins

I once read about someone who arose each morning before dawn, in order to see the sunrise. Not just some mornings. Every morning. For 26 years and counting. It sounded like such a beautiful ritual, to begin each day by focusing on the rising sun. A human daily ritual to witness the Earth and Sun's daily ritual. I found myself wishing I could do that each morning.

There was only one small problem —I am not a morning person. I had to admit that, sadly, I would never be someone who got up before dawn on a consistent basis. It just wasn't my "thing." But I think this reflection on someone else's morning ritual helped me to recognize the value in some kind of daily practice. I wanted that in my own life. These days, my most consistent "thing" is yoga. By doing even a little bit (almost) every morning, I have seen positive changes in both my body and my mind.

When we think about it, there are lots of things we do every day that make us who we are. What are the things that you do consistently? How do they shape your life? Is there something you want to do? If so, just begin. Don't even set goals. Just start. Is there something you used to do that you want to get back to? The beauty of each new day is that we can always begin again.

In peace and love,

Rev. Kim D. Wilson

USED BICYCLES WANTED:

Pedals for Progress, in its continuing effort to recycle bicycles properly, is having a used bike collection sponsored by the Rotary Club of the Stroudsburgs.

Anyone with an adult or child's bicycle in repairable condition is urged to donatehis or her bike to this worthy cause. We do not accept "bikes for parts" or disassembled bikes.

Bikes can be dropped off from 9 am to 12 pm on Saturday June 13, 2015, rain or shine @ The Odd-Lot Outlet located on Rte 209 just off 1-80 Exit 309, East Stroudsburg, PA 18302.

P4P collects 3,000 to 5,000 bicycles annually and transfers this material wealth to those more needy. To date, more than 143,000 have been shipped to developing countries in Latin America, Africa and Eastern Europe. In these countries the bikes are reconditioned by partner agencies and distributed at low cost to poor working adults. These bikes provide them with reliable transportation for commuting towork, transporting product to market, or accessing health care and other services.

Steady employment for these adults is vital to the development and success for these economies.
