

This Saturday, May 28, beginning at 8 am, UUFP Treasurer Kim Blomquist will host a yard sale at her home at 1610 Wallace Street, Stroudsburg. The proceeds will go to benefit UUFP. Please bring any items that you would like to donate for sale. Volunteers to work at the sale are needed! Kim could use help with set up as early as 7 am for all you early birds out there! Volunteers are also needed to take money, bag items, etc. Folding tables to display items would be appreciated. The sale won't last all day, so come early for the best selection! Please email info about the sale to friends on your email list so we can get the best turn out possible and raise money for our fellowship.

Also on Saturday, May 28, from 1 to 3 pm, at UUFP, 118 Knight Street, the UUFP Women's Circle will meet. Come join us for a lovely way to spend a Saturday afternoon and much more. The topic for discussion this week will be "Fear". If you have a topic you would like to bring up in the future, please let Susan Odessky or Elayne Eskenazi know.

🎵 Please join Ruth Kochera, our musical director, on Sundays starting at 9 am for choir rehearsal. All members and friends who enjoy singing are welcome. Ability to read music is a plus but not required. 🎵

On Sunday, May 29 at 10 am, our service will be a Discussion Sunday. Topic to be announced.

Upcoming Events:

Mondays: Weekly Yoga Class at UUFP: We now have a weekly yoga class at UUFP on Mondays from 6:00 to 7:20 pm. The cost is $7 a session. A flyer is attached. Please see Jim Furiosi for more information.

Wednesdays: UUFP Drama Group: The UUFP drama group facilitated by Jan Julia meets on Wednesday evenings at 7 pm. Members and friends are welcome. Please email Jan at janjulia@useitcreatively.com for more information.

Sunday, June 19 - 🍔 UUFP Annual Picnic 🍔 -- Mark your calendars!

Wednesday, June 22 - UUFP BOOK GROUP: Inspired by UUFP Book Group participants, specific topics will be discussed each month. For the month of June, the Book Group will be discussing books related to mental health issues. Read any book, fiction or non-fiction, related to mental health and come join the Book Group at UUFP on Wednesday, June 22nd from 1-2:30 pm to discuss your book selection. For suggestions of books related to mental health ask a librarian, check the list in the UUFP Library, "Google" a list or check out the website <https://www.goodreads.com/>.

Noteworthy:

All books left on the UUFP bookshelves are 3 for $1 . Please do not bring in any books at this time. So far this year we have collected $57.50 from book sales.

Former UUFP Member Angela Bridgman, visited UUFP this past Sunday. Angela, a transgender woman, is attempting to get an Action for Immediate Witness at this year's UUA General Assembly (GA) meeting in response to the legislation recently passed in North Carolina that bars transgender individuals from using restrooms for their self-identified gender.

We took a collection for Angela, who is raising money to get to GA to an Action for Immediate Witness regarding this important issue. If you did not have a chance to contribute and would like to, below is a link to Angela's Go Fund Me account and an article about Angela's testimony before a Senate committee in the North Carolina state legislature about the serious consequences of this bill to the transgender community.
